Danny Kistner – Fire Chief

With a professional firefighting career spanning more than 28 years and an impressive operational, administrative and educational background, Danny Kistner assumed the position of Fire Chief for the City of McKinney on July 5, 2011. Kistner's extensive experience, education and vision for the future of the American fire service are an excellent fit for our fast growing, "Best Places to Live," community.

Kistner, the child of a career military family, was born in Germany. As a young child, his family relocated to El Paso, Texas, where he grew up and graduated from high school. A strong believer in higher education, Kistner possesses multiple degrees, including an Associate of Applied Science from Trinity Valley Community College, a Bachelor of Science in Fire Service Administration from Western Oregon State University, and a Master of Science in Fire and Emergency Management Administration from Oklahoma State University. He is currently a PhD candidate in Fire Service Administration from Oklahoma State University. Other significant educational achievements include completion of the prestigious Senior Executives in State and Local Government program at Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government.

Canadian Interact club wins 2012 video contest

The Interact Club of Hugh Boyd Secondary School in Richmond, British Columbia, Canada, is the grand-prize winner of the 2012 Interact video contest with its entry, Students Making a Difference.

The 80-member Interact club chose the theme, "Five ways my Interact club makes the world a better place." The video tells the story of how club members collaborated on projects that made a positive impact both locally and internationally.

"When writing the script, our Interact club really wanted to emphasize the power of numbers," says club president Shaane Nathu. "The idea we wanted to convey is that an initiative can start with just one person and grow from there. This concept makes our hopes and dreams to make a difference a reality. We may be just students, but we can have an impact on our society."

Nathu says it took about two weeks to produce the video, which highlights five projects that his Interact club took part in with its sponsor, the Rotary Club of Richmond Sunset.

Rotarian Magdalen Leung, a sponsor of the Interact club, says she knew the students had a good chance of winning the contest.

"Our Rotary club encouraged the Interactors to enter this competition because we have seen how committed and energized they are in every project they participate in. We realized their successes would make a great story," says Leung. "The recognition of their outstanding work will help other young people participate in the work of Rotary."

Says Nathu: "The best part of making the video was all of us coming together and working as a team. We understood how much of an impact this video could potentially have on other Interactors."

The Hugh Boyd club will receive a letter from RI President Sakuji Tanaka and an engraved plaque. And its video will be featured for a year on RI's Official Interact Video Contest YouTube page.

'Engage Rotary, Change Lives' is 2013-14 RI theme

RI President-elect Ron Burton will ask Rotarians to Engage Rotary, Change Lives in 2013-14.

He unveiled the RI theme during the opening plenary session of the 2013 International Assembly in San Diego, California, USA, the annual training event for incoming district governors.

"If we really want to take Rotary service forward, then we must make sure that every single Rotarian has the same feeling about Rotary that each one of us here has today," Burton said. "We need to make sure that every Rotarian has a meaningful role to play, that they're all making a contribution, and that their contribution is valued."

“It takes everything that is wonderful about Rotary and raises it to a new level — by encouraging bigger, more sustainable projects while providing increased flexibility for local projects, both of which address the needs of the community being served,” he said.

Burton asked the incoming district governors to take the lead in helping their clubs through the transition, with the assistance of their district Rotary Foundation chairs, who also attended the assembly this year. The training sessions are focusing heavily on equipping these leaders to go back to their districts as experts on the new grant model.

Burton applied that lesson also to membership development, which he insisted is the responsibility of every Rotarian. He told the audience that although he had been an active member of the Key Club, a youth program of Kiwanis International, he went on to join Rotary simply because the Rotary Club of Norman, Oklahoma, invited him to.

“You have to ask,” he said.

But Burton emphasized that the job doesn’t end when a new member joins: “It’s not done until that new member is engaged in Rotary, inspired by Rotary, and uses the power of Rotary service to change lives.”

Today's Thoughts in Honor of

National Nothing Day – January 16

One does not kill oneself for love of a woman, but because love - any love - reveals us in our nakedness, our misery, our vulnerability, our nothingness.

Teacher's Pet

On the last day of kindergarten, all the children brought presents for their teacher. The florist's son handed the teacher a gift. She shook it, held it up, and said, "I bet it's some flowers!"

"That's right!" shouted the little boy.

Then the candy store owner's daughter handed the teacher a gift. She held it up, shook it, and said, "I bet I know what it is! It's a box of candy!"

"That's right!" shouted the little girl.

The next gift was from the liquor store owner's son. The teacher held it up and saw that it was leaking. She touched a drop with her finger and tasted it.

"Is it wine?" she asked.

"No," the boy answered. The teacher touched another drop to her tongue.

"Is it champagne?" she asked.

"No," the boy answered.

"What is it?" she said.

"A puppy!"
