Peace Symposium

District 5810 and the SMU School of Conflict Resolution on the Plano Campus are the title sponsors for the January 26, 2013 Peace Symposium. We would like to offer opportunity to each club who would like to participate. By donating to the Symposium you will fulfill your club's requirement on the presidential citation to help with a Peace Symposium.

We have a wonderful day planned starting with our keynote speaker Maj. Gen. James Williams. Then there will be two rounds of breakout sessions for the young people (ages 15 to 25) to attend with lunch in between. These sessions will cover eight different topics. It is designed with the idea in mind that if each group of students has four, then each member will do two different sessions therefore covering all of the topics for their group.

Until November 29, 2012, we have to restrict the number from each club to four participants in order for each club to have a chance to send representatives. The cost including lunch will be $5.00. It will be a great forum for Rotaractors, Interactors and others in that age group to hear experts on the topic of Peace and how it can be achieved.

The location is SMU Plano Campus, 5228 Tennyson Pkwy Plano, TX 75024 from 9 am until 2 pm.

Rotary Youth Exchange promotes Cultural Understanding

I believe that everything Rotary does is important. However, I also believe that nothing is more important to Rotary's future than the programs of New Generations. Encompassed by New Generations are all of Rotary's programs for people under the age of 30. Interact is for students 12 to 18, Rotary Youth Exchange is for those 15 to 19, Rotaract is for individuals 18 to 30, and RYLA — Rotary Youth Leadership Awards — is for anyone 14 to 30 years old.

I have been fortunate enough to have known about and participated in Rotary for about 15 years. I was in elementary school when I got to participate in my first Rotary community service project, and it had a profound influence on me. When I started high school, the most exciting part was joining Interact. Put basically, Interact is the high school version of a Rotary club. Members meet regularly, they have community service projects, and they participate in international projects. For me, Interact was my first chance, without parental oversight, to feel that I could make a difference in my community and in the world. The plan for Interact clubs encourages that. They work autonomously but partner with local Rotary clubs to do great things in the world.

My next adventure with Rotary was RYLA. Every district does it differently, so I can only talk about my experience. For me, it was an intensive week of leadership training. Through my local Rotary district, I was given the tools I would need to be an integral member of society. In today's age focused on technology, which often limits human interaction, we desperately need programs that focus on human skills. That is what RYLA provides. For Rotary, this is the perfect opportunity to introduce young people to what Rotary is, what Rotary does. It is a chance to tell this captive audience of interested youth about the scholarships, the travel opportunities, and the ability to do good in the world that Rotary offers them.

Interact and RYLA were both great experiences and they taught me so much. I have to say, though, that the program that made the biggest difference in my life was and is Youth Exchange. In August 2005, I got on an airplane and, as an 18-year-old student, flew to Istanbul, Turkey. I did not know anyone. I did not speak the language. The culture was vastly different from mine. But it was the most amazing thing to ever happen to me. Rotary sent me to another country, to learn another way of life, and to have my eyes opened to the world around me. While there, I made friends not only with Turkish people but also with other Rotary exchange students from around the world.

Youth Exchange is one of the best tools, if not the best, for cultural understanding. Every day through this program, young people are gaining life experiences and world understanding that will be with them for the rest of their lives. I have been back from Turkey for almost six years, but not a day goes by that I do not think of Turkey and the lessons I learned there.

'Engage Rotary, Change Lives' is 2013-14 RI theme

RI President-elect Ron Burton will ask Rotarians to Engage Rotary, Change Lives in 2013-14.

He unveiled the RI theme during the opening plenary session of the 2013 International Assembly in San Diego, California, USA, the annual training event for incoming district governors.

“If we really want to take Rotary service forward, then we must make sure that every single Rotarian has the same feeling about Rotary that each one of us here has today,” Burton said. “We need to make sure that every Rotarian has a meaningful role to play, that they’re all making a contribution, and that their contribution is valued.”

Burton applied that lesson also to membership development, which he insisted is the responsibility of every Rotarian. He told the audience that although he had been an active member of the Key Club, a youth program of Kiwanis International, he went on to join Rotary simply because the Rotary Club of Norman, Oklahoma, invited him to.

“You have to ask,” he said.

But Burton emphasized that the job doesn’t end when a new member joins: “It’s not done until that new member is engaged in Rotary, inspired by Rotary, and uses the power of Rotary service to change lives.”

Today's Thoughts in Honor of

Compliment Day – January 26

Modesty is the only sure bait when you angle for praise.

- Lord Chesterfield (1584 – 1656)

Fun at Work Day – January 28

"Get happiness out of your work or you may never know what happiness is."

- Elbert Hubbard (1856 – 1915)

Smart Lad

My nursing colleague was preparing an intravenous line for a 15-year-old male patient. The bedside phone rang, and the boy's mother reached over to pick it up. After talking for a few minutes, the mother held the phone aside, turned to her son and said, "Your dad is asking if you've got any cute nurses."

The boy gazed at the nurse, who had the needle poised above his arm, ready for insertion. "Tell him," he replied, "they're gorgeous."

Tactful

Some of the most tactful people on Earth are our English friends. A British office supervisor once called a secretary in to give her the bad news that she was being fired. He started the conversation with: "Miss Symthe, I really don't know how we're going to get along without you, but starting Monday, we're going to try."
