Dr. Hind Jarrah – Texas Muslim Women Foundation

Hind was born in Beirut Lebanon to Palestinian Parents. She studied in Islamic Schools (Madrassah) for Elementary and Junior High levels and in the International College for High school. She graduated from the American University in Beirut with a B. Sc. In pharmacy. Came to the States with Husband in 1975 and graduated with a PhD in pharmacology from UTHSC Dallas in 1980. They were blessed with two little girls by that time, and a third one by 1982.

During 1982, Hind became a founding member of the Arabic Heritage Society, a non profit organization that served to educate and preserve the Arabic culture within the DFW area. AHS taught children of Arab American Parents and the community at large about the Arabic culture through an Arabic language weekend school, exhibits, and class room presentations, fashion shows. These were held in area schools, international festivals, churches, teachers' workshops, and libraries. During the years Hind served in various capacities as AHS, president, treasurer, and Board member.

Realizing that that soon she and her husband would be experiencing the empty nest syndrome, with all three of daughters in college. Hind decided to go back to school and return to work in Science major, so by 2000, She graduated from UTD with a masters in Cognition and Neuroscience, hoping to work in Alzheimer disease research; however, in 2001, September 11 happened and Hind's life was changed forever. She became very active in Interfaith dialogue, outreach and educational efforts about Islam and Muslims.

In 2004 She was invited to the committee on faith and feminism at Dallas Women's Foundation and became aware of the tremendous impact women' organizations have in effecting positive change in Society. Therefore in 2005 Hind co founded the Texas Muslim Women foundation to empower, promote and support Muslim Women, and hopefully contribute positive change in the life of women and girls within the Muslim Community and the community at large.

Today's Thoughts in Honor of

Inspire Your Heart With Art Day – January 31

The capacity for getting along with our neighbor depends to a large extent on the capacity for getting along with ourselves. The self-respecting individual will try to be as tolerant of his neighbor's shortcomings as he is of his own."

- Eric Hoffer (1902 – 1983)

Make a Friend Day – February 11

"In poverty and other misfortunes of life, true friends are a sure refuge. The young they keep out of mischief; to the old they are a comfort and aid in their weakness, and those in the prime of life they incite to noble deeds."

- Aristotle (384 BC – 322 BC)

An Illinois man left the snowballed streets of Chicago for a vacation in Florida. His wife was on a business trip and was planning to meet him there the next day. When he reached his hotel, he decided to send his wife a quick e-mail.

Unable to find the scrap of paper on which he had written her e-mail address, he did his best to type it in from memory. Unfortunately, he missed one letter, and his note was directed instead to an elderly preacher's wife whose husband had passed away only the day before. When the grieving widow checked her e-mail, she took one look at the monitor, let out a piercing scream, and fell to the floor dead.

At the sound, her family rushed into the room and saw this note on the screen:

Dearest Wife,

Just got checked in. Everything prepared for your arrival tomorrow.

Your Loving Husband.

P.S. Sure is hot down here.

Memorial fund set up for shooting victims

The Rotary Club of Clackamas, Oregon, USA, and Rotary International District 5100 (parts of Oregon and Washington, USA) have established memorial funds after two Rotary Youth Exchange students were killed and five others wounded in a shooting outside an underage nightclub on 24 January in Portland.

The two victims, Ashley Lauren Wilks, 16, of Happy Valley, Oregon, and Martha Paz De Noboa, 17, of Arequipa, Peru, were at the club to celebrate a birthday with nine fellow exchange students when the incident took place. The five injured students have all been released from the hospital.

Investigators of the Portland Police Bureau described the shooting as "a random act of violence," and said that the victims did not appear to be targeted and did nothing to provoke the 24-year old gunman, who later died from a self-inflicted gunshot wound.

"We are deeply saddened by this tragedy, and our focus now is on supporting the surviving victims and their families, and the family and friends of the students who have died," District 5110 Governor Dennis J. Wickham said in a release. "Immediately after being notified of the tragic incident, Rotary's procedures and personnel in place for such an emergency were activated."

District 5100 has established a fund to help defray some of the medical and travel costs incurred by the victims, their families, and the host families. Any funds remaining after paying these expenses will continue as the Martha (Tika) Paz De Noboa Memorial Scholarship Fund.

The Clackamas Rotary club has set up a memorial scholarship fund at Clackamas High School, where Wilks was a student. The club's foundation will define the criteria for applications with Wilks' interests and motivation in mind. Wilks, a straight-A student, was hoping to spend her senior year in France or Spain.

"Ashley was a wonderful person who had a strong passion for international studies and peace," says Shirish Patel, past president of the Clackamas club. "Our club and community are deeply hurt by this loss. Our hearts go out to Ashley's family and friends."

Scott Bieber, youth protection officer for District 5100, says the safety and well-being of students is always a top priority, but adds that the program also strives to give participants the authentic experience of being a U.S. high school student.

"Sadly, you can't plan or prevent for something like this," says Bieber. "We're all shocked and saddened. But we are focused on giving the victims and their families the support and trauma relief they need."

Hundreds of Rotarians worldwide have contacted district officials to express their condolences and offer their support. In addition to monetary help, the district's Youth Exchange officers set up a volunteer support committee to assist students and their families.

Committee coordinator Brandie Kajino, a former Rotary exchange student, says the outpouring of support from Rotarians has been unbelievable.

"It's extremely touching to see all the caring Rotarians selflessly willing to volunteer their time and money," says Kajino, a member of the Rotary Club of East Portland. "Through good times and bad, Rotary has always stuck together. Now more than ever, we need to mobilize and help these kids get through this horrific tragedy."

Kajino notes the sad irony that students who aimed to build peace and goodwill were victims of such a senseless violent crime.

"It's heartbreaking," says Kajino. "Having experienced the Youth Exchange program, I know the difference this program can make. It's an incredible and life-changing experience that will only strengthen the lives of students who participant."
