Future Vision

The arrival of Future Vision on July 1, 2013 will completely change the methods we've become accustomed to concerning Matching Grants, District Grants, teams and scholars. Our district will have a record $75,000 for grants in the 2013/2014 Rotary year.

Saturday, February 9, we will hold a seminar to explain and educate members on the new processes and procedures. Additionally, the attendance at this meeting will authorize their club members to submit grant requests.

The seminar will be held in lieu of the regularly scheduled Roundtable meeting. It will begin with a registration and a social gathering at 9:30AM. The seminar will begin at 10:00AM and end by 12:00PM. It will be held at the Plano Chamber of Commerce, 1200 E. 15th St., Plano. There is no charge for the event.

RILI Class 24 Now Open for Registration

District 5810 RILI has graduated over 300 Rotarian Leaders to date.

RILI is one of the best investments a club can make for the club's own future.

RILI Tuition is $250 for Rotarians

Send us your up & coming Rotarians and we will return them with new and heightened Leadership Skills that will benefit your club well into the future.

For six years we have limited RILI attendance to "Rotarians Only".

During that time we have been requested by attendees to allow their spouse to attend with them.

RILI Classes Are Now Open To Non-Rotarian spouses.

The leadership skills learned at RILI work for Rotary, Business, Family and Volunteers.

RILI Tuition Is Only $200 For Non-Rotarian Spouses

Rotarians and Spouses can register now at

RILI Class 24

(Non-Rotarian Spouses must register separately and pay $200.00 by check.)

Nobel Peace laureate Aung San Suu Kyi receives award at Rotary Global Peace Forum

Aung San Suu Kyi, leader of Myanmar's democracy movement and recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize, delivered the keynote address at the Rotary Global Peace Forum held in Honolulu, Hawaii, USA, 25-27 January.

She was honored with the Hawaii Peace Award for her longstanding pursuit of democracy through peaceful, nonviolent means. After 20 years of house arrest, Suu Kyi was released in November 2010, and last year was elected to Myanmar's parliament as a member of the pro-democracy opposition party.

Suu Kyi told the attendees that absolute peace is an unattainable goal, but one that we must nevertheless continue to endeavor toward. She said that democratic institutions are necessary to guarantee human rights.

"The kind of peace we want is very simple. We want permanent peace," said Suu Kyi.

She also noted that young people have an important role to play. The Honolulu forum emphasized the importance of getting youth involved in the peace process.

"We must help our young people so that they may be able to take over our task of nation building," Suu Kyi said. "We depend on our young people to take us forward."

Engaging young people

More than 1,800 Rotarians, Rotary alumni, and supporters of Rotary's peace program took part in this event, the second of three peace forums planned by RI President Sakuji Tanaka. The first was held in Berlin in November, and a third is planned for Hiroshima, Japan, 17-18 May.

"Rotary builds peace and international understanding through education, humanitarian service, and connecting with youth," Tanaka said. "To ensure a lasting legacy in this arena, we must engage young people and the new generations to come in a meaningful way, and empower them to carry Rotary's peace-building efforts into the future."

The forum also addressed environmental conservation as a means of promoting peace. Attendees adopted a declaration supporting The Green Path to Peace, which urges those in the family of Rotary to act as catalysts for peace through efforts that conserve and protect the planet.

"An environment that is healthy makes it possible for us to reach our full potential," Tanaka said. "When our basic needs are met, we are not occupied with the daily problems of survival. There is less cause for conflict. And people and nations who do not waste their energy in conflict can use it in ways that benefit everyone."

Past RI President Luis V. Giay served as the forum's convener. The three sites for the peace forums were selected by Tanaka because each was heavily affected by World War II and now represents the healing power of sustainable peace between nations.

"Growing up in Japan after World War II, I saw the importance of peace. I saw the consequences of war," said Tanaka. "Working for peace is a lifelong task. Every day, in 34,000 clubs around the world, we work together for a more peaceful world by bringing water, health, education, and hope to the people who need it most."

Books build peace

In his comments to the forum, RI President-elect Ron Burton recalled a book project he took part in years ago in San Antonio, Texas, and how precious it was to see children clutching their new books.

"There is a reason why we do it the way we do, why we go in as a club, in person, and give these things to the kids with our hands, one human being to another. It's saying, here's something that will help you, and I am giving it to you because I care," Burton said. "How do you build a world with more peace? You start with one Rotarian, handing one kid her first book."

Rotary clubs have long embraced the call for peace at the grassroots level by addressing the underlying causes of conflict and violence, such as hunger, poverty, disease, and illiteracy. Ten years ago, Rotary decided to take a direct approach to promoting world understanding by providing future leaders with the tools they need to "wage peace" on the global stage.

Today's Thoughts in Honor of

Clean out your Computer Day – February 11

"Software: These programs give instruction to the CPU, which processes billions of tiny facts called bytes, and within a fraction of a second it sends you an error message that requires you to call the customer-support hot line and be placed on hold for approximately the life-span of a caribou."

- Dave Barry (1947 –)

Abraham Lincoln's Birthday – February 12

Discourage litigation. Persuade your neighbors to compromise whenever you can. As a peacemaker the lawyer has superior opportunity of being a good man. There will still be business enough.

- Abraham Lincoln (1809 – 1865)

Last summer my wife and I met a couple at a restaurant. After lunch, the women decided to go shopping and I invited the man to go sailing.

While we were out on the water, a storm blew up. The tide had gone out, and we were down wind trying to work our way back through a narrow channel. At one point the boat grounded and we had to climb overboard and shove with all our might to get it back into deeper water.

As my new friend stood there, ankle deep in muck, the wind blowing his hair wildly, rain streaming down his face, he grinned at me. With unmistakable sincerity, he said, "Sure Not
