District 5810 Strategic Plan

On Saturday, January 9th, the District Governor Nominating Committee, typically consisting of the immediate past 5 District Governors, went through the difficult task of interviewing and selecting a District Governor Nominee—Designate (DGND) to serve our District 5810 and Rotary International as District Governor for the Rotary Year 2012-13. Three candidates were interviewed and the Committee chose Sandra (Sandy) Forster, Rotary Club of Garland. Sandy and her husband Bud Carmichael, are long-time residents of Garland. Sandy has been a member of the Rotary 'Club of Garland for over 17 years.

Sandy has earned many Rotary awards such as the District 5810 Service Above Self Award for 2007-08, Rotary Foundation Advocacy Award 2008-09, District Rotarian of the Year Award 2008-09 and she was one of only 150 RI Service Above Self recipients worldwide awarded by RI President D.K. Lee for 2008-09. She has worked as both a Club and District Committee chair and officer, including being a club president twice, District Secretary, and District Grants and World Community Service Chair. She and Bud have traveled the Globe on many Rotary mission and polio immunization trips and they share a common passion for Rotary service.

The Manual of Procedure now requires a two week period for comments by members of the clubs in the district. Comments or objections can be sent to District Governor Dave until the end of the day on January 25, 2010. After this date the nomination will become official and will be posted with Rotary International.

Global Outlook

Rotary's involvement in peace work began early

Although advancing the cause of world peace was not one of the original ideas behind Rotary, the concept took such a strong hold so early on that peace and Rotary have come to be inextricably linked in the minds of anyone familiar with the organization.

In 1914, at the onset of World War I, delegates to Rotary's international convention in Houston adopted a resolution that called for the convening of an international peace conference and urged all Rotarians to support worthy efforts such as the international peace movement. In September of that year, the Rotary Club of Minneapolis, Minnesota, USA, submitted a proposal to the International Association of Rotary Clubs asking that Rotarians become advocates for peace in their communities.

In 1922, as the organization took the name Rotary International, the fourth object of Rotary was ratified: "The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service."

At the convention in Havana in 1940, delegates approved a resolution that identified "freedom, justice, truth, sanctity of the pledged word, and respect for human rights" as "vital to international peace" and called on each Rotarian to protect these principles. Even as World War II was raging, Rotarians were able to organize a conference in London, attended by representatives of 21 countries that laid out a plan for peace. This led to the formation of an international group that would later evolve into UNESCO, but not before the historic 1945 meeting in San Francisco at which the United Nations was chartered. About 40 Rotarians took part as delegates and observers at that meeting. Rotary played a critical role in the formative days of the UN, with five Rotarians elected to the post of president of the General Assembly during the first 12 years.

Rotary Peace Fellow Nai-Hua Wu recently spoke to incoming district governors at the 2010 International Assembly in San Diego, California, USA. Rotary Images/Alyce Henson

Throughout the second half of the century, Rotarians around the world continued to work for peace as individuals and in their local clubs, both through financial contributions and a wide range of projects to improve the quality of peoples' lives through health care and education. In 2002, The Rotary Foundation embarked on a new initiative that will help it imprint its peacemaking mark on the 21st century: an international studies program in conflict resolution at seven peace centers at prestigious universities on five continents.

With more than 400 alumni of the Rotary Centers for International Studies in peace and conflict resolution working in peace-related jobs throughout the world, Rotary is well on the way to achieving its goal of inspiring a new generation of peacemakers.

Today's Thoughts in Honor of

The Day the Music Died – February 3

Buddy Holly, Richie Valens and the Big Bopper died in a plane crash in 1959.

"Take a music bath once or twice a week for a few seasons, and you will find that it is to the soul what the water bath is to the body."

- Oliver Wendell Holmes Jr. (1809 - 1894)

Boy Scout Day – February 8

We never fail when we try to do our duty, we always fail when we neglect to do it.

- Sir Robert Baden-Powell (1857 – 1941)

A scout master was teaching his boy scouts about survival in the desert. "What are the three most important things you should bring with you in case you get lost in the desert?" he asked.

Several hands went up, and many important things were suggested such as food, matches, etc. Then one little boy in the back eagerly raised his hand. "Yes, Davey, what are the three most important things you would bring with you?" asked the scout master.

Davey replied, "A compass, a canteen of water, and a deck of cards."

"Why is that, Davey?" asked the scout master.

"Well," answered Davey, "the compass is to find the right direction, and the water is to prevent dehydration."

"And what about the deck of cards?" asked the scout master impatiently.

Davey replied, "Well, sir, as soon as you start playing solitaire, someone is bound to come up behind you and say, 'Put that red nine on top of that black ten.'"
