Janet White – Anything You Want, You Got It

You can have anything you want, and Janet White knows it because she can have anything she wants too. For 35 years, Janet has gotten every job she ever wanted, and it didn't matter if she didn't have the qualifications, didn't have connections, how big the company was, how big the competition was, what was happening in the economy, or anything like that.

During her diverse career, Janet has worked in journalism at Newsday and in broadcast production at WABC. She spent 18 years in commercial real state, 12 of those years as a commercial real estate writer and publicist in New York and Dallas.

In 1996, Janet left commercial real estate for durable medical equipment sales, and she is now National Sales Director for GTL Supply Solutions, an Allen-based distributor of medical equipment to public and private healthcare facilities nationwide.

Janet is the author of the world's first manual for using the Law of Attraction in job-finding, "Secrets of the Hidden Job Market: Change Your Thinking to Get the Job of Your Dreams." Today, Janet is going to teach us how to use the Law of Attraction in any area of our lives.

Having trouble getting with your business? Health? Relationships? Money?

It could be your thinking that's the problem

McKinney Sunrise Rotary Club presents:

"Anything You Want, You Got It!"

A Primer on Using the Law of Attraction ("The Secret")

You will learn:

- What the Law of Attraction is and how it works.
- Why it's so important to think positively.
- How to shift your thinking away from what you don't want and keep it on what you do want.
- That when you change your thinking, you change your life.

The Harlem All Stars are coming

On Feb 21st, the Harlem All Stars will be in town to play some of our local "All Stars" in a basketball game benefiting the Downtown Rotary Club. Our own Brian Loughmiller will be showing off his remarkable basketball skills in the game. The game will be at McKinney High School, Feb 21st, at 7:00 PM.

Ticket Prices will be $10.00 and $5.00 and Jim Orr will be at our meeting this week to give us all the details.

Today's Thoughts in Honor of Valentines Day – February 14

"Accept the things to which fate binds you, and love the people with whom fate brings you together, but do so with all your heart."

- Marcus Aelius Aurelius (121 – 180)

"The sea rises, the light fails, lovers cling to each other, and children cling to us. The moment we cease to hold each other, the moment we break faith with one another, the sea engulfs us and the light goes out."

- James Arthur Baldwin (1924 – 1987)

Do a Grouch a Favor Day – February 16

"Holding on to anger is like grasping a hot coal with the intent of throwing it at someone else; you are the one who gets burned."

- Buddha (563 BC – 483 BC)

Thirteen

I was walking past the mental hospital the other day, and all the patients were shouting, "13...13....13...13."

The fence was too high to see over, but I saw a little gap in the planks and looked through to see what was going on.

Some jerk then poked me in the eye with a stick.

Then they all started shouting, "14...14...14...14."

Memorial fund set up for shooting victims

Golfers did a double take when they saw golf balls falling from the sky above the driving range at Biltmore Golf Course in Coral Gables, Florida, USA, on 31 October.

A helicopter dropped the balls, 1,820 in all, from 100 feet above a golf pin in the middle of the range as part of a fundraiser to support Rotary's US$200 Million Challenge.

Rotarians in District 6990 (Bahamas; Florida) paid $25 for raffle tickets that corresponded to the numbered golf balls. Winners were determined by matching the numbers on the balls closest to the pin with the numbers on the tickets.

"The first-prize winner received a trip for two to Argentina donated by a Rotarian, the second-prize winner received a Cartier watch, and the third-prize winner received a weekend stay and brunch at a local Hyatt Regency," says Noelle Galperin, District 6990 PolioPlus Subcommittee chair.

The effort netted $45,000 for the district's 2008-09 commitment of $50,000 to Rotary's challenge. It was one of many creative fundraisers undertaken by clubs and districts in recent months. Others include:

- RI Director Gordon McNally celebrated New Year's Day by diving into the icy waters of the River Forth in South Queensferry, near Edinburgh, Scotland, for Rotary's challenge. More than 500 participants joined him in the plunge, raising over US$6,000 to help end polio.
- "Realizing my marathon-running or skydiving days are probably behind me, I decided to take part in the appropriately named annual Loony Dook-sponsored swim which takes place each year in our hometown," McNally says. "Every dollar will make a difference and mean Rotary can meet the challenge and finish eradicating polio from the face of the earth."
- Cars in at least five countries are sporting End Polio Now magnets in a project initiated by the Rotary Club of Washago and Area-Centennial, Ontario, Canada. The magnets cost C$2 (US$1.60) each, with free shipping anywhere in North America. The club has raised more than US$1,115 for Rotary's challenge as of 21 January.

"Originally, we wanted to sell one car magnet to every Rotarian in Canada, but the idea is really catching on, and we have received orders from Rotary clubs in Germany, Switzerland, England, and the USA," says project chair Janet Stead. Learn more at www.washagorotary.ca.

- A Music for Life Concert organized by the Rotary Club of Buxton, Derbyshire, England, raised about US$1,870 for Rotary's challenge. About 300 people turned out to enjoy the 28-piece brass Burbage Band, the Mad Hatters Youth Choir, and the Beresford Singers. On display were five banners with the End Polio Now message, provided by District 1050 (England), and one used in a 2008 National Immunization Day in India, courtesy of Mike Yates, of the Rotary Club of New Mills, Marple & District, Derbyshire.
- An eye-opening fundraiser led by Si Burgher, of the Rotary Club of Bloomfield, Indiana, USA, garnered nearly $1,600 for Rotary's challenge. Burgher, 72, donated his shaggy eyebrows -- popularly dubbed "Greene County's Longest Orbital Locks" -- by having them shaved off as part of the club's annual charity auction on 13 January.
- A December exhibit of more than 150 nativity scenes from around the world collected by Linda Beyea, of the Rotary Club of Ames, Iowa, USA, and her husband, helped generate support for ending polio. The collection featured works by Native American, African, Asian, European, Latin American, and other artisans in a variety of media, including pottery, wood, stained glass, and metal. The exhibit was free of charge, but donations totaled $1,382 for Rotary's challenge.
