Dr. Logan Faris – Principal - McKinney High School

Dr. Logan Faris has been with McKinney ISD for six years, serving most recently as Principal at Dowell Middle School where he has led the campus of more than 1,200 students. Under his leadership, Dowell was recently named a 2012 Intel Schools of Distinction Finalist for their innovation in math instruction.

Prior to his service at Dowell, Dr. Faris was an Assistant Principal at McKinney Boyd High School. While there, he played an instrumental role in establishing a positive school climate during its opening in 2006. Among his many duties at Boyd, Dr. Faris functioned as Bronco Camp Coordinator for incoming freshman and served as administrative representative to the Early Intervention Team (EIT).

Before coming to McKinney ISD, Dr. Faris served as an Assistant Principal in Center ISD and in Nacogdoches ISD as well as Assistant Principal for Curriculum at Center High School. He began his career as a science teacher in Leggett ISD and then Broaddus ISD teaching a variety of subjects that included Physics, Chemistry and Biology.

Dr. Faris earned his Bachelor of Science, Master of Education and Doctor of Education in Educational Leadership degrees from Stephen F. Austin University. His doctoral dissertation, The Teacher's Voice: Narratives of an Empowering School Culture, focused on teacher empowerment. Dr. Faris has also served as Adjunct Graduate Professor for the College of Education at Dallas Baptist University since 2008.

Engage Rotary – Change Lives

"If we really want to take Rotary service forward, then we must make sure that every single Rotarian has the same feeling about Rotary that each one of us here has today," RI President-elect Ron D. Burton told incoming district governors in his speech unveiling the 2013-14 Rotary theme -- Engage Rotary, Change Lives -- at the International Assembly in January.

"We need to make sure that every Rotarian has a meaningful role to play, that they're all making a contribution, and that their contribution is valued."

Burton applied that lesson also to membership development, which he insisted is the responsibility of every Rotarian. He told the audience that although he had been an active member of the Key Club, a youth program of Kiwanis International, he went on to join Rotary simply because the Rotary Club of Norman, Oklahoma, USA, invited him to.

MEF Spelling Bee

Yes, there is a "free lunch!". McKinney Sunrise Rotary and the Institute for Healthy Families (Sandi's counseling practice) are sponsoring a spelling team and cheering table for the "Collin College Rotaract Vampires" at the MEF Spelling Bee for Scholarships on Thursday, Feb 21 from 11:30 AM until 1:00 PM at Eldorado Country Club. Our team will also include the 6th Grade Spelling Champion from Faubion Middle School. See Sandi for a luncheon reservation paid by our sponsors.

Rotarians in Germany fight polio one stamp at a time

For more than 80 years, countries around the world have honored the work of Rotary with commemorative stamps. The first appeared in 1931, when Austria created an overprint – a later printing over an officially issued stamp – in honor of the RI Convention in Vienna.

For Rotary's 50th anniversary in 1955, 27 nations issued stamps. The stamp issued by Monaco in honor of Rotary's 50th anniversary appeared in the 1963 movie Charade, starring Audrey Hepburn and Cary Grant.

In 2011, members of the Rotary Club of Essen, Germany developed the idea to support the PolioPlus campaign with a commemorative postal stamp.

"We wanted to do something for the Polio campaign," says Frank Schmid, the project initiator and a member of the Rotary Club of Essen. "Of course, the first purpose is to collect money. At the same time, we wanted to create something memorable, and something people would like as a collector's item."

After a test phase in which 10,000 charity stamps were issued (and sold quickly among Rotarians and friends), a new issue of 100,000 stamps was planned. Approvals from Rotary's licensing department and the German postal service were obtained in 2012, and the club is now ready to distribute the stamps. With each stamp sale of €1.10 (US$1.49), at least 37 cents (US$0.50) will go towards PolioPlus—enough to pay for one dose of the polio vaccine.

Anyone interested in purchasing the stamps can contact the RC of Essen at Info@poliobriefmarke.de. The minimum order is 1,000 stamps per club or 100 stamps per person (five sheets).

This initiative fulfills two purposes for Rotary: financial support for the fight against polio and creating awareness for Rotary's ongoing campaign against the disease. This project also serves as yet another piece of Rotary history.

News anchor says Rotary Scholarship gave him a broader perspective

Far away and long ago are not enough to diminish the impact of a 1991 Ambassadorial Scholarship in Australia for Patrick Nolan. The anchor at the Fox TV station in Fort Myers, Florida, USA, says the emphasis on goodwill and understanding still provides a framework for his life.

"I've forgotten a lot of things in the past 20 years, but that year is like yesterday," he says. As a student at the University of Florida, Nolan had been named an alternate through the Rotary club near his Miami home. At his graduation, his mother told him the good news: The scholarship was available.

“I was the default scholar,” he says, noting that the decision to accept was difficult because he had a job lined up at a TV station in Missouri. “My mom said, ‘You need to do this.’”

Nolan continued his journalism studies at Murdoch University in Perth, but most of his education was off-campus. “I learned how to see the United States from an outside perspective,” he says. “It made me proud to be an American and gave me a sense of humility.”

He gained empathy for immigrants and realized how little he knew about the rest of the world. “I learned there is always another perspective, usually several, and it’s incumbent upon us as journalists to seek those out.”

He tells Rotary clubs about his year whenever he’s asked and encourages young people to seek out similar opportunities. “Some experiences in youth fade away,” he says. “I realize the value of this one the more time goes by.”

Today's Thoughts in Honor of

Love your Pet Day – February 20

I like pigs. Dogs look up to us. Cats look down on us. Pigs treat us as equals.

- Sir Winston Churchill (1874 – 1965)

Pistol Patent Day – February 25

"Laws that forbid the carrying of arms . . . disarm only those who are neither inclined nor determined to commit crimes . . . Such laws make things worse for the assaulted and better for the assailants; they serve rather to encourage than to prevent homicides, for an unarmed man may be attacked with greater confidence than an armed man."

- Thomas Jefferson (1743 – 1826)

Little Johnny's Pappa

Little Johnny was talking to a couple of boys in the school yard. Each was bragging about how great his father was.

The first one said, "Well, my father runs the fastest. He can fire an arrow and start to run. I tell you, he gets there before the arrow!"

The second one said, "Ha! You think that's fast! My father is a hunter. He can shoot his gun and be there before the bullet!"

Little Johnny listened to the other two boys and shook his head. He then said: "Sorry, dudes, but MY DAD is the fastest. He's a civil servant. He stops working at 4:30, and he's home by 3:45!"
