Bob May

Bob May has been a passionate baseball fan all his life. He has fifty-five years of experience in playing the best baseball board game simulations. He believes that sophisticated baseball board game simulations are an excellent way to measure performance across eras without losing the play-by-play experience of being at the park and making managerial decisions.

His first book, The Best Season – The First Ninety Games honors twenty-one players from the Black Ball era (Negro Leagues and independent black teams) by putting them on the field to play the greatest Major League players from the 1880s-1980s. This first book is only half a season. The second book, The Best Season – The Challenging Finish completes the season against the following franchises – Athletics (Philadelphia and Oakland), Giants (New York and San Francisco), Yankees, Dodgers (Brooklyn and Los Angeles) and Red Sox.

In addition, there are thirty all-star games pitting the Black Ball Stars against up to twenty-five of the greatest players in history. There is also a six team (includes Black Ball Stars) playoff to determine the best franchise in baseball history. Important Note – The publishing of Book Two is contingent on the success of Book One!

Bob has been married to his English wife, Michele for over forty-seven years. They reside in Rockwall TX. They have three children and eight living grandchildren. Bob has been a Christian since January 1976. He believes The Lord has been redirecting his passion for baseball ever since. “Before I was a Christian, baseball had a dark side, it was all about Bob. My love of baseball had a negative impact on our marriage. When God revealed to me the idea of honoring the stars of the Black Ball Era with this two book series, it gave me a purpose for my baseball passion. God is continuing to expand my vision of His Plan for me to advance His Kingdom.”

Bob is a Substitute Teacher in Rockwall ISD. He is an active member of Toastmasters of Rockwall. He worked thirty-one years in the corporate world for American Optical Manufacturing Company (Southbridge MA). He served his country from 1964-1969 in the USAF as a navigator on C-130 transports. He is co-host of an internet radio show, Blacks Do Play Baseball

Council Grants Clubs Greater Flexibility in Meeting, Membership

The 2016 Council on Legislation may well be remembered as one of the most progressive in Rotary history.

Not only did this Council grant clubs more freedom in determining their meeting schedule and membership, it also approved an increase in per capita dues of $4 a year for three years. The increase will be used to enhance Rotary's website, improve online tools, and add programs and services to help clubs increase membership.

The Council is an essential element of Rotary's governance. Every three years, members from around the world gather in Chicago to consider proposed changes to the policies that govern the organization and its member clubs. Measures that are adopted take effect 1 July.

The tone for this year was set early, when the RI Board put forth two proposals that increase flexibility. The first measure allows clubs to decide to vary their meeting times, whether to meet online or in person, and when to cancel a meeting, as long as they meet at least twice a month. The second allows clubs flexibility in choosing their membership rules and requirements. Both passed.

Representatives also approved removing six membership criteria from the RI Constitution and replacing them with a simple requirement that a member be a person of good character who has a good reputation in their business or community and is willing to serve the community.

The $4 per year dues increase was based on a five-year financial forecast that predicted that if Rotary didn't either raise dues or make drastic cuts, its reserves would dip below mandated levels by 2020. The yearly per capita dues that clubs pay to RI will be $60 in 2017-18, $64 in 2018-19, and $68 in 2019-20. The next council will establish the rate after that.

"We are at a moment in time when we must think beyond the status quo," said RI Vice President Greg E. Podd. "We must think about our future."

Podd said the dues increase will allow RI to improve My Rotary, develop resources so clubs can offer a better membership experience, simplify club and district reporting, improve website access for Rotaractors, and update systems to keep Rotary in compliance with changing global regulations.

Also because of this Council's decisions:

- A Council on Resolutions will meet annually online to consider resolutions — recommendations to the RI Board. Council members will be selected for three-year terms. They'll participate in the Council on Resolutions for three years and the Council on Legislation in their final year only. The Council on Resolutions will free the Council on Legislation to concentrate on enactments — changes to Rotary's governing documents. Proponents predict that the Council on Legislation can then be shortened by a day, saving $300,000.

- Rotaractors will be allowed to become members of Rotary clubs while they are still in Rotaract. Proponents argued that too few Rotaractors (around 5 percent) join Rotary. Sometimes it's because they don't want to leave their Rotaract clubs before they have to, upon reaching age 30. It's hoped that giving them more options will boost the numbers of qualified young leaders in Rotary.
- The distinction between e-clubs and traditional clubs will be eliminated. The Council recognized that clubs have been meeting in a number of ways, and given this flexibility, the distinction was no longer meaningful. Clubs that have "e-club" in their names can keep it, however.
- The reference to admission fees will be removed from the bylaws. Proponents argued that the mention of admission fees does not advance a modern image of Rotary.
- A standing committee on membership was established, in recognition that membership is a top priority of the organization, and polio eradication was also reaffirmed to be a goal of the highest order.

Morty visits Dr. Saul, the veterinarian, and says, "My dog has a problem."

Dr. Saul says, "So, tell me about the dog and the problem."

"It's a Jewish dog. His name is Irving, and he can talk," says Morty.

"He can talk?" the doubting doctor asks.

"Watch this!" Morty points to the dog and commands: "Irving, fetch!"

Irving, the dog, begins to walk toward the door, then turns around and says, "So why are you talking to me like that? You always order me around like I'm nothing. And you only call me when you want something. And then you make me sleep on the floor, with my arthritis. You give me this fahkakhka food with all the salt and fat, and you tell me it's a special diet. It tastes like dreck! YOU should eat it yourself! And do you ever take me for a decent walk? NO, it's out of the house, a short pish, and right back home. Maybe if I could stretch out a little, the sciatica wouldn't kill me so much! I should roll over and play dead for real for all you care!"

Dr. Saul is amazed. "This is remarkable! So, what's the problem?"

Morty says, "He has a hearing problem! I said 'fetch,' not 'kvetch.'"
