The Four Way Test
of the things we think say or do....

1. Is It the Truth
2. Is It Fair to All Concerned
3. Will it Build Goodwill and better Friendships
4. Will it be Beneficial to all Concerned

Chris Hendricks – Community Lifeline Center – Veterans Program Director

I am a wife of a retired AF Officer, Boeing Program manager and soon to be school teacher. I am also a mother of two and “Grammie” of three. I am a licensed social worker, and now am the Veteran’s Program manager for Community Lifeline. I have lived in Fariview for the past eight years and feel like Texas is my home.

Military life teaches a lot of things, but doesn’t always protect veterans from the surprises that can arise in civilian life: health and family issues, job loss, unexpected financial problems, stress and emotional issues. The Texas Veterans Commission understands that and has awarded grants to local service providers, like Community Lifeline Center, to serve the needs of Veterans.

Community Lifeline Center is now able to provide a range of support services to Northern Collin County and McKinney veterans or qualifying family members. Services include the following, and more:

Housing & utility assistance

Medical and dental

Prescriptions

Transportation

Counseling

Job development/training

Legal assistance

Auto care

Bereavement

Memorial Day

Our first flag holiday is rapidly approaching and it is critical that we have everything ready for the scouts as they deliver our flags. Please make sure you have all of your preps and installs done no later than this weekend. If you are needing help please get with your flag captain and arrange to get the assistance that you need. We have almost 1300 flags to be distributed, the largest start that we have ever had and in order for the delivery to go smoothly, all sleeves must be in place, caps on sleeves, and curbs painted on your route.

Rotarians leave Bangkok encouraged to fight poverty and finish the job of eradicating polio

Rotarians and friends left the 2012 RI Convention in Bangkok, Thailand, energized to keep up the fight against polio and to use their ingenuity to help reduce global poverty.

The four-day event, which drew to a close Wednesday, attracted more than 35,000 attendees from 181 countries and geographical areas and included a celebration of two major milestones in the global polio eradication effort.

Attendees were also treated to a preview of the next RI Convention, which will take place 23-26 June 2013, in Lisbon, Portugal.

In his closing remarks, RI President Kalyan Banerjee reminded Rotarians that “what’s important in Rotary isn’t what we say. It’s what we do, and who we are.”

“There dwells within you the power and spirit that can evoke the energy you may not realize,” Banerjee said. “You have to be hungry enough to reach within and release the energy to help you embrace humanity. I believe this is the state we call happiness. I have just given you the prescription for it. Rotary can help you achieve happiness in life that you seek.”

Peace through service

Incoming RI President Sakuji Tanaka outlined his plans for his term, which begins 1 July. Tanaka will ask Rotarians to achieve Peace through Service.

“Through service we learn that the problems that may seem large to us are really very small,” said Tanaka. “We learn empathy for others. We come closer to people who seem very different from us. And we begin to understand how much we are all the same.”

“Through our Rotary service, we know that cooperation is more productive than conflict,” he said. “We know that every one of us has something to give, and everyone has something to teach.”

Delegates elected nominee Ron D. Burton, of the Rotary Club of Norman, Oklahoma, USA, as the 2013-14 RI president during the fourth plenary session earlier in the day.

“I am both honored and humbled to accept the nomination of president of Rotary International,” Burton said in his acceptance remarks. “I take a tremendous amount of pride in being a Rotarian. To me, Rotary isn’t just another service organization. It is something different, something special.”

Burton says the best years are still to come for Rotary. He emphasized RI's Strategic Plan as the tool to make that happen.

"The plan is a way to look clearly at who we are, where we are going, and how we should get there," said Burton. "It's a powerful reminder of our goals and priorities, which at their heart are the same as they've been since Rotary was founded."

Achieving peace

Jose Ramos-Horta, president of the Democratic Republic of Timor-Leste, talked about his country's struggle to achieve peace. He told Rotarians that peace can be difficult but, with the right people in place, it's attainable.

"Peace is a process — sometimes a long one, too long. It can be a formal political process," said Ramos-Horta. "But to be sustained we have to deal with human beings as individuals, as communities, as people with traumas, emotions, and anger, but also with hopes, hearts, and feelings."

Today's Thoughts in Honor of International Museum Day – May 18

History is representational, while time is abstract; both of these artifices may be found in museums, where they span everybody's own vacancy.

- Robert Smithson (1938 – 1973)

Armed Forces Day – May 19

I am a soldier, I fight where I am told, and I win where I fight.

- General George S. Patton (1885 – 1945)

A husband and wife are shopping in their local Wal-Mart. The husband picks up a case of Budweiser and puts it in their cart.

"What do you think you're doing?" asks the wife.

"They're on sale, only $10 for 24 cans," he replies.

"Put them back, we can't afford them," demands the wife. So he does and they carry on shopping.

A few aisles further on along, the woman picks up a $20 jar of face cream and puts it in the basket.

"What do you think you're doing?" asks the husband.

"It's my face cream. It makes me look beautiful," replies the wife.

Her husband snorts: "So does a case of 24 cans of Budweiser, and it's only half the price."

On the PA system: "Cleanup on aisle 25. We have a husband down."
