The Four Way Test
of the things we think say or do....

1. Is It the Truth
2. Is It Fair to All Concerned
3. Will it Build Goodwill and better Friendships
4. Will it be Beneficial to all Concerned

Steve Haid

Steve Haid began his real estate career in 1998 after working as a health care administrator for nearly two decades. In his health care career, he served as President of both his national professional and trade associations, and served on the Board of Directors of numerous national industry-related associations. In 1998 he earned his real estate license and worked as a REALTOR® with Keller Williams Realty until he joined Collin County Association of Realtors (CCAR) as MLS Director in September 2004. His job with CCAR has been continually evolving. He has been Director of MLS, Education, Marketing and Communications, and most recently Member Services. Steve has provided staff support to several CCAR committees and regional MLS committees. He has also served on the Texas Association of Realtors Technology Committee. Steve graduated from the University of Missouri St. Louis and received his Masters Degree from Texas Woman's University. Steve is an Elder at Trinity Presbyterian Church. He plays several musical instruments and sings in his church Praise Team and choir. He also enjoys golf, woodworking, and fly-fishing. Steve and his wife live in McKinney. He has two grown children, Cristin and Michael, and seven grandchildren.

Camp RYLA Selections

Our club has made it's selections for who will be representing us at Camp RYLA this summer. From McKinney North our two students will be Taylor Honea who is on the Athletic Advisory Counsel and has been on the Varsity Football Team for 2 years, and Meagan Dempsey who is a Color Guard section leader and has been in the band for 3 years. From McKinney Boyd our two students will be Trey Pierce, President Elect of our Interact club at Boyd and Co-Executive Producer for the School Broadcasting "BNN" and Emily Pearce who is in the Interact club and team captain for the Varsity Golf Team. All four are expecting a great experience at Camp RYLA and should represent our club well.

Our First Flag Holiday of the Year

We will be cutting-off all new installs for the Memorial Day (25th) flag week-end on Tuesday, May 19th. Memorial Day flag pick-up at the Shed by our Partners is as follows:

- Flag pick-up at the Shed >> Thursday, May 21th - 5:15 PM to 6:30 PM.
- Flag delivery-back to Shed >> Tuesday, May 26th - 5:30 PM to 7:00 PM.

Jeff Caserotti should have the sign up list of volunteers at the meeting this week to remind those of you who have signed up for this weekend. We could still use some help if you are able to come out. It would be great to have a big turnout of Rotarians at the shed for our first flag holiday as the more help we have the easier it is for everyone. Thanks to everyone one in the club for effort to begin this years flag service, we have gained a great deal of momentum for the beginning of the season and want to keep that momentum going.

Today's Thoughts in Honor of

Buy a Musical Instrument Day – May 22

"Music is the language of the spirit. It opens the secret of life bringing peace, abolishing strife."

- John Stuart Mill (1883 – 1931)

Tap Dance Day – May 25

"It's the heart afraid of breaking that never learns to dance. It is the dream afraid of waking that never takes the chance. It is the one who won't be taken who cannot seem to give. And the soul afraid of dying that never learns to live."

- Bette Midler (1945 –)

"While I dance I cannot judge, I cannot hate, I cannot separate myself from life. I can only be joyful and whole. That is why I dance."

- Hans Bos

Little Tim was in the garden filling a hole when his neighbor peered over the fence.

Interested in what the cheeky-faced youngster was up to, he politely asked, "What are you up to there, Tim?"

"My goldfish died," replied Tim tearfully, without looking up, "and I've just buried him."

The neighbor said, "That's an awfully big hole for a goldfish, isn't it, Tim?"

Tim patted down the last heap of earth and replied, "That's because I couldn't get him out of your cat."

Putting a STOP to polio

"As a health professional, working toward the eradication of a disease has to be one of the greatest programs one can participate in."

The words of Jenny Horton, a nurse and member of the Rotary Club of Kenmore, Queensland, Australia, helped mark the 10th anniversary of the Stop Transmission of Polio (STOP) program, established by the World Health Organization, UNICEF, and the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). CDC hosted a celebration at its headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia, USA, in January. Attendees included Horton and other STOP team members, representatives from Rotary International and the World Health Organization, and current and former CDC staff.

STOP has taken Horton to Botswana, Ethiopia (twice), Nigeria, and Pakistan. She is one of more than 1,000 volunteer team members who have traveled to 60 countries to provide technical support for polio eradication since 1999.

The volunteers conduct field surveillance, train local health care providers in surveillance techniques, and help plan and monitor polio and measles vaccination campaigns. STOP also sends volunteers to support UNICEF in social mobilization, advocacy, and communications for immunization efforts in Africa and Asia.

"The STOP program was CDC's idea, and we met with several of the agency's 'smallpox warriors' to hear their thoughts on training and deploying staff for three-month assignments," said Dr. Steve Cochi, special adviser to the CDC Global Immunization Division director. "Based on their experience eradicating smallpox in the 1970s, they recognized the value of such a program and provided great input as we got started."

CDC's largest global health training program, STOP has received US$681,900 in grants from PolioPlus for volunteers' stipends.

"When the STOP program was established, some 7,000 cases of polio were reported, and more than 25 countries were polio endemic," said Robert Hall, Zone 34 coordinator for Rotary's US$200 Million Challenge and past governor of District 6900 (Georgia). "A decade later, only four countries remain polio endemic and, due to improvements in polio eradication strategies, we have more confidence than ever that polio can be eradicated in its remaining strongholds."
