The Four Way Test
of the things we think say or do....

1. Is It the Truth
2. Is It Fair to All Concerned
3. Will it Build Goodwill and better Friendships
4. Will it be Beneficial to all Concerned

First Flag Holiday

A huge thank you to all club members for a successful first flag holiday of the season. Our club along with our scout partners distributed over 1300 flags for Memorial Day, the most our club has had for the first holiday ever. There was a very low percentage of call outs over the weekend for errors and this wouldn't have been possible without the help of all club members and everyone pitched in to make it very successful.

We now have nearly 1400 flags to be distributed for Flag day and need all the help we can get on Tuesday June 12 from 4:30 to 6:30 and will be taking them back in on Saturday June 16th from 1030AM to noon. The deadline to order flags for Flag Day will end on Monday, June 4 at 5 PM. Tim or Steve will run the route prep lists on June 5 and bring them to Rotary on Wednesday, June 6 for the Rotarian Teams. All teams must finish prepping their routes for Flag Day and complete the maintenance issues from Memorial Day by Monday, June 11. Return all buckets to the storage shed by June 11 to be reloaded for Scout troops.

Rotary Happy Hour Meet-Up and New Member Orientation

You will get an appetizer, an enchilada dinner and tea (beverage of choice optional) and the club covers this with your usual breakfast charge. What a deal! What is it? The Wednesday, June 20, 5:30 pm to 6:30 pm, Happy Hour Meet-Up and New Member Orientation is a chance to gather Sunrise Rotarians, spouses and friends for food, fellowship and bit of Rotary information. Your Club Service Director, Linda Terry, has scheduled this happy hour event at El Chico's back room. Salsa and chips will be in abundance. Come and have a fun time. Get better acquainted and learn some ins and outs of Rotary, the world's largest service organization. If you have never attended a New Member Orientation, your presence is expected and roll will be taken. But this is not just for new members. All come out, welcome our newest members, their spouses and friends, and get to know all in our family of Rotary. There will be no breakfast meeting at Eldorado Country Club on Wednesday, June 20, but I believe El Chico's can build a bacon taco if you are desperate. So Meet-Up, Tweet-Up, and Check-In at El Chico's, 5:30 pm, on Wednesday, June 20.

Rotarians get creative in raising money for polio eradication

When polio is wiped off the planet, Rotarians' ingenuity will deserve much of the credit. Panda hot air balloon rides and polar plunges are just a couple of the creative ways Rotarians raised money for Rotary's Challenge and educated their communities about the need to eradicate the disease. Here are some more highlights.

1. Biggest kicks: The Kick Polio Out of Africa campaign, which launched in February 2010 in anticipation of the FIFA World Cup. It started with a symbolic kicking of a soccer ball signed by Nobel Peace Prize laureate and polio survivor Desmond Tutu.
2. Most illuminating: The countless landmarks lit with the End Polio Now message, including the Pyramid of Khafre near Cairo; Frere Hall in Karachi, Pakistan; the Taipei 101 building in Taiwan; and the Colosseum in Rome
3. Most likely to rise to great heights: The 10 skydivers who jumped over the Amazon River in Manaus, Brazil, with an End Polio Now banner, and the Polio Panda hot air balloon that was part of a fundraising project of the Rotary Club of Albany, Ore., USA
4. Most record-setting: The more than 100 clubs in 23 countries, led by the Rotary Club of Grantham, England, that broke the Guinness world record for one-hour swimming on 25 February 2012. During the hour of 12:00-13:00 GMT, 5,207 participants across 15 time zones each swam over 100 meters, more than double the previous record. The event raised US$87,500.
5. Most driven: Rotarians in District 3291 (India), who drove in a race to solve puzzles and decipher clues at checkpoints across Kolkata while raising awareness about polio eradication, and Rotarians in Fortaleza, Brazil, who organized a 68-car caravan that drove 45 miles, showcasing End Polio Now stickers and raising US$10,000 from corporate sponsors
6. Most brow-raising: Si Burgher, of the Rotary Club of Bloomfield, Ind., USA, who raised $1,600 by letting people pay $100 each to take turns shaving off his never-been-trimmed eyebrows
7. Most amazing story: Elementary school student Ian Schwartz, of Eugene, Ore., USA, who opted to collect donations for PolioPlus rather than receive birthday presents after reading the illustrated "Amazing Stories of Polio" in The Rotarian. Ian's earnings, matched by his parents and boosted by the Rotary Club of Eugene, totaled $1,640.
8. Best dressed: The Rotaract Club of Windsor, Ont., Canada, which raised C$5,000 by hosting a fashion show, and the Rotary Club of Fremont Warm Springs Sunrise, Calif., USA, whose own fashion show raised more than US$52,600
9. Most stick-to-it-iveness: Interact clubs in District 3291 (India), which raised US$3,200 by selling End Polio Now bumper stickers for a minimum donation of $2 each

10. Sweet staff award: Rotary International staff members, who held a Pies for Polio bake-off that raised just over US$400. The winning pie was a classic pecan.
11. Shiver me timbers award: The more than 500 participants, including 2007-09 RI Director Gordon McNally, who plunged into frigid river waters in South Queensferry, Scotland, on New Year's Day, raising US$6,000
12. Greenest thumb: The Rotary Club of Medford, Ore., USA, which sold 3,222 of its trademarked Goodbye Polio Rose bushes, raising more than $50,000
13. Best bash: The Rotary Club of Sentosa, Singapore, which hosted more than 300 Rotarians and guests from Singapore and Malaysia to celebrate Rotary's 105th anniversary, raising US$85,000
14. Home run: The Rotarians who partnered with 17 Major League Baseball teams to raise tens of thousands of dollars for polio eradication through discounted ticket sales and related events. At one Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim game in August 2011, more than 1,000 Rotarians helped raise over $24,000.

Today's Thoughts in Honor of National Yo-Yo Day – June 6

Take our politicians: they're a bunch of yo-yos. The presidency is now a cross between a popularity contest and a high school debate, with an encyclopedia of cliches the first prize.

- Saul Bellow (1915 – 2005)

Hug Holiday – June 11

There's something in a simple hug

That always warms the heart,

It welcomes us back home

And makes it easier to part....

- Johnny Ray Ryder, Jr.

Menopause Jewelry

My husband, being unhappy with my mood swings, bought me a mood ring the other day so he would be able to monitor my moods.

We've discovered that when I'm in a good mood, it turns green. When I'm in a bad mood, it leaves a big red mark on his forehead.

Maybe next time he'll buy me a diamond. Stupid man!
