Derrick Robinson – Alliance of Elite Youth Leadership

Mr. Derrick M. Robinson's passion for encouraging, inspiring and motivating young men runs deep. His life's dedication to mentoring, as a source of growth and development of young men, is a vision from God. The Alliance of Elite Youth Leadership's mentorship program has impacted the lives of, not only members of the organization, but their families, schools and communities as well. Through Derrick's leadership, AEYL will meet its mission of improving the youth's perspective of life. In his youth, he had a strong will and desire of becoming famous through the game of basketball, a passion that is still strong today. It wasn't until he was injured and reached adulthood, that he realized that this was his way to reach out to young men and give back to the community.

Derrick was born and raised in the small town of Marianna, Arkansas with a population of approx. 5,000 people which is in a steady decline due to rising poverty. Growing up in this community, opportunities were limited. The only path he could imagine was to become a hustler; it seemed that was the best and only way to something better. This mentality stemmed from not having a stable structure. The day came where it was too much to bear; where he should have known a sense of purpose and accomplishment; there was emptiness while becoming a man. He then felt the need to locate his biological father; whom he met for the first time, at the age of 26. Through this journey, he discovered the missing pieces to the history of his purpose; which changed his perspective on life.

To have only been established since May 2013, The Alliance of Elite Youth Leadership is well-known in communities; achieving recognition by the City of McKinney, Collin County officials and various churches and organizations.

McKinney Sunset Rotary

The Rotary Club of McKinney Sunset wants to be the third Rotary club in McKinney. A satellite club of McKinney Sunrise is now being formed in the city's historic downtown. The acting Chairs for this new effort are Sandi and Lyle Froese, members of McKinney Sunrise and active participants in District 5810. Getting a new club started is always a work in progress--hard work. Rotarians throughout the district are encouraged to assist in this effort by showing up and offering support to the folks who are new to Rotary. You can help by putting McKinney Sunset on your makeup list and dropping by these informational and organizational gatherings. This satellite club is a happy hour club that meets each Thursday afternoon at 5:15 PM at Louisiana St. Grill, 350 E. Louisiana St., McKinney, TX 75069. The Grill is two blocks east of the historic downtown square. There is no meal, just a bunch of folks with hearts for service on tabs or having a complimentary glass of iced tea, chips and salsa. Join us and encourage others who may be potential members.

Showing the power of social media, a Rotarian from Branford CT found McKinney Sunset on Facebook, www.facebook.com/mckinneysunsetrotary, and attended the second gathering of this new satellite club while on a trip through Texas. Shown here is Charlotte Mattei receiving a mini banner from club Chair, Lyle Froese.

President Gary C.K. Huang's Ambitious 1.3 Million Membership Goal

Gary C.K. Huang never imagined he would become Rotary International's president when he joined in 1976, but now that he is in office, he hopes to increase membership to 1.3 million by the end of his term.

"It's simple. The more members we have, the more people we can help. A stronger membership base will result in stronger communities," says Huang, who on 1 July became Rotary's first Chinese president.

Huang also hopes his presidential theme, Light Up Rotary, will encourage members to brighten Rotary's image to the public, which he believes in return will improve member recruitment and retention.

Huang has a track record of improving membership development in Asia, adding 19 clubs when he was district governor for Taiwan, Hong Kong, and Macau. One of the cornerstones of his presidency is encouraging clubs and districts to conduct a Rotary Day. These one-day events, he says, can spotlight a particular cause, and solidify Rotary's image as one of the world's leading service organizations.

"We need to showcase our good work to everyone in the community. Rotary Days need to be fun and all inclusive. Invite your family, friends, and neighbors to participate. My hope is at the end of the day a few non-members will want to join Rotary," he says. "Let's give people the opportunity to experience what it's like to make a difference. Rotary Days can achieve that."

Huang designed a travel schedule that will allow him to visit more than 30 Rotary Day events across the globe, including Argentina, Chile, France, India, Italy, Korea, Malaysia, Philippines, and the U.S., as well as his home city of Taipei.

Huang says he's honored and humbled to be Rotary's president. He knows he's part of an exclusive club.

"We [past Rotary presidents] have achieved great success in our businesses and in our communities," says Huang. "But success isn't about power or money. It's about giving back. Being a Rotarian has given me the opportunity to help those in need. As president, I can inspire our members to take advantage of the same opportunity and bring happiness in people's lives."

FUNDING GAPS

Huang says Rotary members are never short on ideas and innovative ways to solve problems, but funding gaps prevent many of these projects from taking off.

For instance, Rotary members in Korea, Japan, and China are strong fundraisers, but struggle to help each other use the funds because of distance and language barriers, Huang says.

"I want to show Rotarians why I am their president," he adds. "The best way to do that is to see and inspire their work, participate in their projects, and help them raise funds."

"I want to, along with my district governors, reach out and try to link different clubs from different countries together so we can find the right communities in need," he adds. "That's one of the great things about being an international organization: the ability to bring different cultures and backgrounds together to find a common cause."

Today's Thoughts in Honor of Book Lovers Day – August 9

All good books are alike in that they are truer than if they had really happened and after you are finished reading one you will feel that all that happened to you and afterwards it all belongs to you; the good and the bad, the ecstasy, the remorse and sorrow, the people and the places and how the weather was.

- Ernest Hemingway (1899 – 1961)

Son & Daughter Day – August 11

I must take issue with the term 'a mere child,' for it has been my invariable experience that the company of a mere child is infinitely preferable to that of a mere adult.

- Fran Lebowitz (1950 –)

You can tell a lot about a woman's mood just by her hands.
For instance, if they are holding a gun, she's probably angry.
