2012 Rotary International Convention

2012 Rotary International Convention set Thailand's new page of history by creating "Thailand's Biggest Smile" with participation of 2012 Rotary members and Ripley's Believe It Or Not to judge the event. The number 2012 reflects the convention year and is also the year Rotary members celebrate their success in raising more than $200 million (6.1 billion baht). This amount of money is the contribution by Rotary members worldwide under PolioPlus program which will be used as new funding for polio eradication campaign in response to a $355 million (10.9 billion baht) challenge grant from the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation. Furthermore, being held in Thailand for the very first time, this smile-creation activity is also in accordance with 2012 Rotary International Convention's concept of "The Land of Thousand Smiles" in order to convey the friendliness of the Thais and being the land of smile as well as to express Thailand's hospitality in welcoming participants from the four corners of the world.

Elementary schools in Mexico City enjoy the gift of clean water

Elementary schools across Mexico City have clean drinking water and improved sanitation thanks to U.S. and Mexican Rotarians.

Since 2008, Heart 2 Heart, a project of District 4170 (Mexico) and seven districts in Illinois, Indiana, Louisiana, and Tennessee, has funded the installation of clean water tank systems in more than 50 schools, improving the daily lives of tens of thousands of students. A 10,000 liter tank is connected to each school's internal plumbing and filtering system to provide clean water for drinking, toilet flushing, and hand washing.

Better sanitation at schools means healthier students and more time spent in the classroom, says Ron Appuhn, one of the project's coordinators and immediate past president of the Rotary Club of Maryville-Alcoa, Tennessee.

“Not having clean water and sanitation impacts children's ability to go to school. Students get sick and they miss school,” says Appuhn. He adds that providing schools with basic necessities allows teachers and administrators to focus on educating the students.

Local Rotarians arrange for the construction and delivery of the water tanks, assist with the installation and plumbing, and train school officials in routine maintenance. Each tank is refilled weekly by the government at no cost to the school or Rotarians.

Each tank costs US$3,500. They are made mostly of steel and last up to 40 years. The plan is to install 50 to 60 more clean water systems, according to Appuhn.

Promoting water projects on Rotary Showcase

To share the success of Heart 2 Heart with the Rotary world, Appuhn added the project to Rotary Showcase. The new online tool allows clubs to publicize project achievements to other Rotarians and Facebook friends.

Here are examples of other clean water and sanitation projects on Rotary Showcase:

- The Rotary Club of Forest Hills, Pennsylvania, USA, in cooperation with the Rotary Club of Kigali-Virung, Rwanda, installed a solar-powered pumping station next to a natural spring near a village at the base of a mountain in central Rwanda. The station pumps more than 8,800 gallons of clean water every day, giving the village ample water for drinking, cooking, and agriculture.
- Members of the Rotary Club of Bangalore East, Karnataka, India, worked with government officials to provide heavy machinery to extend a natural water basin by 10,000 square feet. The collection of runoff and rainwater serves two purposes: it increases the water supply in surrounding areas and stops flooding of nearby roads.
- District 7500 (New Jersey, USA) and the Rotary Club of Los Álamos de Monterrico, Peru, used a Rotary Matching Grant to provide bio-sand filters for more than 500 families in Lima, Peru. Rotarians hope to extend the project to include 5,000 more families.

Today's Thoughts in Honor of

Frankenstein Day– August 30

Nothing contributes so much to tranquillize the mind as a steady purpose.

- Mary Shelley (1797 – 1851)

Labor Day – September 3

Labor was the first price, the original purchase-money that was paid for all things. It was not by gold or by silver, but by labor, that all wealth of the world was originally purchased.

- Adam Smith (1723 – 1790)

A man was walking in the city, when he was accosted by a particularly dirty and shabby-looking bum who asked him for a couple of dollars for dinner.

The man took out his wallet, extracted two dollars, and asked, "If I gave you this money, will you take it and buy whiskey?"

"No, I stopped drinking years ago," the bum said.

"Will you use it to gamble?"

"I don't gamble. I need everything I can get just to stay alive."

"Will you spend the money on greens fees at a golf course?"

"Are you NUTS! I haven't played golf in 20 years!"

The man said, "Well, I'm not going to give you two dollars. Instead, I'm going to take you to my home for a terrific dinner cooked by my wife."

The bum was astounded.

"Won't your wife be furious with you for doing that? I know I'm dirty, and I probably smell pretty bad."

The man replied, "That's okay. I just want her to see what a man looks like who's given up drinking, gambling, and golf."
