A blind man is walking down the street with his seeing-eye dog one day. They come to a busy intersection, and the dog, ignoring the high volume of traffic zooming by on the street, leads the blind man right out into the thick of traffic. This is followed by the screech of tires and horns blaring as panicked drivers try desperately not to run the pair down.

The blind man and the dog finally reach the safety of the sidewalk on the other side of the street, and the blind man pulls a cookie out of his coat pocket, which he offers to the dog. A passerby, having observed the near fatal incident, can't control his amazement and says to the blind man, "Why on earth are you rewarding your dog with a cookie? He nearly got you killed!"

The blind man turns partially in his direction and replies, "To find out where his head is, so I can kick his butt."

Past RI President William Skelton dies

William E. Skelton, who served as RI president from 1983 to 1984, died 30 August at the age of 89.

Skelton, who had been battling cancer for the past year, was extremely involved at Virginia Tech as a former dean, and with the 4-H club.

"I truly do not know anybody who really lived and embodied the Rotary motto of Service Above Self more than Bill Skelton," said Douglas McAlister, past governor of District 7570 (Virginia). "He always displayed an endless vitality, imagination, and a degree of tenaciousness that I have never seen in anyone else and will probably never see again."

Skelton first joined the Rotary Club of Christiansburg-Blacksburg, Virginia, USA, in 1955. In addition to his term as RI president, he served in numerous capacities including as district governor; International Assembly group discussion leader; committee member and chair; Foundation trustee, chair, and consultant; director; and first vice president.

He was a recipient of RI's Service Above Self Award and The Rotary Foundation's Citation for Meritorious Service and Distinguished Service Award. He also received the PolioPlus Pioneer Award for his extraordinary service to PolioPlus.

"In that district, everybody looked up to him," recalls Jim Johnson, club secretary of the neighboring Rotary Club of Blacksburg. "All the incoming and past district governors sought his counsel."

Leaving a legacy

Johnson's wife, Janet, a member of the Christiansburg-Blacksburg club, said Skelton's many legacies include a Rotary scholarship for international exchange students named after him.

"Because of him, we are able to sponsor three of those a year," she said. "His interest and his commitment to students and building international goodwill are a part of his legacy."

As RI president, Skelton's theme, Share Rotary – Serve People, helped Rotarians focus on promoting development in the areas of membership, community, vocation, and international relations as a means to achieve Rotary's humanitarian goals and make a difference in the world.

Skelton was also a leader at Virginia Tech and with 4-H. After his retirement from Virginia Tech in 1979, he served as dean emeritus, president of the Virginia Tech alumni association, and athletic association board member.

In 1983, the university bestowed upon him its highest recognition: the Alumni Distinguished Service Award and the Ruffner Medal.

He served as director of 4-H programs and of the Virginia Cooperative Extension. The W.E. Skelton 4-H Conference Center was named after Skelton and his wife, Margaret (Peggy), in recognition for their service.

He is survived by his wife, son John K. Skelton, and daughter Jean S. Montague.
