Trevor Castilla – Living Water International

Nearly 21 years ago, Living Water International set out to help the church in North America be the hands and feet of Jesus by serving the poorest of the poor. More than a billion people in the world live on less than a dollar a day. 884 million people lack access to safe drinking water.

For all practical purposes, these statistics refer to the same people; around the world, communities are trapped in debilitating poverty because they constantly suffer from water-related diseases and parasites, and/or because they spend long stretches of their time carrying water over long distances.

In response to this need, Living Water International implemented participatory, community-based water solutions in developing countries. More than 10,000 water projects (and counting!) for communities in 26 countries have been developed.

Today, Living Water International trains, consults, and equips local people to implement solutions in their own countries. LWI also leads hundreds of volunteers on mission trips each year, working with local communities, under the leadership of nationals, to implement water projects. It's hard to know which lives are changed more—those "serving" or those "being served."

Today's program is a summary of my experience with Living Water International with a water well drilling crew in southeast Guatemala in August.

Rotary International Leadership Institute

RILI Class # 23 Is Now Open For Registration.

It will be held the weekend of October 6 and 7, 2012.

Holiday Inn Express, Exit 69

Denison Texas

District 5810 RILI has graduated 344 Rotarians Leaders to date.

RILI is one of the best investments a club can make for the club's own future.

RILI Tuition is $250 for Rotarians

Send us your up & coming Rotarians and we will return them with new and heightened Leadership Skills that will benefit your club well into the future.

Leadership is the force that drives our clubs towards success. RILI (Rotary International Leadership Institute) in District 5810 has been developing new leadership skills in Rotarians for 6 years and returning better equipped members to strengthen the club's future.

Every year clubs lose 10-12 % of their members so it's hard to make headway in growth.

OR IS IT ?

We recently measured the loss of RILI graduates over the last 6 years.

THE RILI GRAD LOSS IS JUST OVER 1%.....that in itself is testimony.

And RILI grads get connected with their clubs more deeply after attending RILI.

We encourage clubs to underwrite the $250 tuition as a club investment.

Isn't it time you attended RILI.

Local peace forums aim to inspire international results

Londonderry, Northern Ireland, once torn by civil unrest and violence, is now thriving with culture and a popular destination.

The city's transformation, which came about after the peace process in Northern Ireland culminated in the Good Friday Agreement, serves as a shining example of how a city can make the transition from conflict to peace.

To mark the 15th anniversary of the historic agreement, the Rotary Club of Londonderry will host a three-day international peace forum, Peace Through Building Bridges, 24-26 May. The event promotes the 2012-13 RI theme, Peace Through Service, says conference chair John McMonagle.

"After many turbulent years in our history, we as a people have reclaimed peace and we want to share our experience with the world," says McMonagle, a member of the Londonderry club. "To assist us in this endeavor, we need to bring together all of the people who have been significant in our history, some victims, some perpetrators, and our own leaders, academics, and great thinkers."

Nearly 1,000 Rotarians and guests have registered for peace-building workshops. Panel discussions focus on ways to promote peace through economics, human rights, and youth development. Keynote speakers include RI President Sakuji Tanaka, peace activists, government officials, university professors, and writers who experienced the Northern Ireland conflict and helped resolve the early post-conflict issues.

The goal of the conference, says McMonagle, is to "contribute to reconciliation, learning, and self-expression to those committed to peace through the world. We want to show how just one Rotary club can play a big part in communicating this message."

As part of this year's theme, RI will be holding three Rotary Global Peace Forums. Tanaka is also encouraging each club and district to plan a peace activity or hold its own peace forum. In addition to Londonderry, a number of other clubs and districts have responded to Tanaka's invitation.

Canadian districts

Districts 5040 (British Columbia, Canada) and 5050 (part of British Columbia, part of Washington, USA) are holding a joint peace forum on 23 February, World Understanding and Peace Day and Rotary's anniversary, to help clubs develop community and global peace projects.

“We want to bring to life this year’s Rotary theme by encouraging Rotarians and clubs to take on peace-related service projects locally and internationally,” says Chris Offer, a past governor of District 5040, who is helping organize the forum. “We aspire through presentations, discussion, and debate to motivate Rotarians to become involved in peace issues.”

The conference will discuss juvenile bullying, gang activity, the Rotary Peace Centers program, and the use of Rotary Foundation grants for peace and conflict resolution. Workshops will also explore the need for Rotary clubs to take a leadership role in promoting peace, how polio eradication initiatives demonstrate peace in developing countries, and how Rotarians can establish partnerships to pursue local and international service projects aimed at building peace. Roundtable discussions will involve Rotarians in identifying specific actions their clubs can take.

“Peace is more than the absence of war,” says Offer. “Peace is when we minimize a social injustice and demonstrate basic respect for someone else. This forum is about showing Rotarians new ways to promote peace.”

Today's Thoughts in Honor of

Ask a Stupid Question Day– September 28

If there are no stupid questions, then what kind of questions do stupid people ask? Do they get smart just in time to ask questions?

- Scott Adams (1957 -)

National Good Neighbor Day – September 28

The most insignificant people are the most apt to sneer at others. They are safe from reprisals. And have no hope of rising in their own self esteem but by lowering their neighbors.

- William Hazlitt (1778 – 11830)

Several years ago, Andy was sentenced to prison. During his stay, he got along well with the guards and all his fellow inmates. The warden knew that, deep down, Andy was a good person. So, the warden made arrangements for the inmate to learn a trade while doing his time.

Some three years later, Andy was recognized as one of the best carpenters in the local area. Often, he would be given a weekend pass to do odd jobs for citizens of the community. And, he always reported back to prison by early Sunday evening. Andy was a model inmate.

One day, the warden considered remodeling his kitchen, though he lacked the skills to build a set of kitchen cupboards and a large counter top. So, he called Andy into his office and asked him to do the job for him. To the warden's surprise, Andy simply refused to help.

"But, you're an expert. Andy, I really need your help," said the warden.

"Gosh, warden, I'd really like to help you, but counter fitting is what got me into prison in the first place."
