Today's Program – Cindy Johnson, Chestnut Square

Chestnut Square Historic Village is celebrating its 35th year in 2008. A hidden jewel, Chestnut Square represents a link to the heritage of Collin County. With structures representing the key developmental phase of McKinney's history from 1850 through 1930, Chestnut Square's Living History programs bring Collin County history to life for McKinney families and school children throughout the year. In the late 1990's Dallas spent $12 million to create their own historic village in downtown Dallas....over the past five years Frisco has spent $7 million plus to recreate a historic village near their new Town Hall. Chestnut Square is a gift that nine ladies presented to McKinney in 1973....35 years later it's a vibrant community center that offers facility rentals, weddings, Farmers' Market, Living History Days, summer camps and school tours. You need to know about what's happening at Chestnut Square!

Flag Building Party

Due to the overwhelming success of our flag program this year, we are running short on flags for the last flag holiday of the season. On Wednesday, October 7th at 5:00 PM the club is looking for volunteers to come to our storage shed to build 50+ flags. If we have enough volunteers we should be able to finish in about an hour to an hour and a half. Please mark your calendars, Thanks.

If it is raining at 4:00 PM Wednesday afternoon the time will be moved to 5:00 PM Thursday.

Today's Thoughts in Honor of ....

World Smile Day – October 7

“Too often we underestimate the power of a touch, a smile, a kind word, a listening ear, an honest compliment, or the smallest act of caring, all of which have the potential to turn a life around.”

- Leo F Buscaglia (1924 – 1988)

International Sceptics Day – October 12

“Modern cynics and skeptics... see no harm in paying those to whom they entrust the minds of their children a smaller wage than is paid to those to whom they entrust the care of their plumbing.”

- John F Kennedy (1917 – 1963)

A Jewish Rabbi and a Catholic Priest met at the town's annual 4th of July picnic. Old friends, they began their usual banter.

'This baked ham is really delicious,' the priest teased the rabbi. 'You really ought to try it. I know it's against your religion, but I can't understand why such a wonderful food should be forbidden! You don't know what you're missing. You just haven't lived until you've tried Mrs.. Hall's prized Virginia Baked Ham.

Tell me, Rabbi, when are you going to break down and try it?'

The rabbi looked at the priest with a big grin and said, 'At your wedding.'

Taiwanese donors share much in common

Taiwanese Rotarians Yen-Shen Hsieh and James Chen share more than just the same club. They also share an uncommon commitment to many of The Rotary Foundation's initiatives.

Their dedication is reflected in the unique way that both Hsieh and Chen, members of the Rotary Club of Taipei Castle, allotted their contributions of US$250,000 to help support several areas of the Foundation. They will both be inducted into the Arch C. Klumph Society on 5 November at RI World Headquarters in Evanston, Illinois, USA.

After months of consideration, they decided together to spread their donations across the Foundation, signifying the importance of supporting all its efforts, says Hsieh, governor of District 3480.

"I learned more about the different Foundation programs to better understand where I wanted to donate," says Hsieh. "I collaborated with James so we both would donate the same amount to the same programs. I hope to continually support these programs in the future."

In July, Hsieh and Chen each allocated $180,000 to the Rotary Centers for International Studies in peace and conflict resolution, $50,000 to the Permanent Fund, $15,000 to the Annual Programs Fund, and $5,000 to the PolioPlus Fund.

"I believe the combination of both our donations, divided up to support multiple programs, is stronger than a single donation," says Chen, president of the Taipei Castle club. "Every program in the Foundation is important to Rotarians and people worldwide."

At a donor recognition dinner in Taipei on 5 August, RI President John Kenny acknowledged the generous gifts that Hsieh, Chen, and other Taiwanese Rotarians have made to the Foundation.

"I know that the Rotarians of Taiwan understand the value of their contributions to The Rotary Foundation and have made the Foundation a priority in their charitable giving," said Kenny during his keynote address. "Taiwanese Rotarians have made 54 gifts of $10,000 or more this Rotary year, as well as the numerous gifts that are the lifeblood of the Foundation."

Kenny noted that Taiwan is home to 10 members of the Arch C. Klumph Society, "each of whom has individually made a significant difference to our Foundation's ability to do its work."

Along with Hsieh and Chen, three other Taiwanese Rotarians will be inducted into the society on 5 November: Sheng-Chien "Mirror" Chang, Yau-Fang "Gary" Chen, and Sui-Seng Hsu.
