About Paul Harris

Paul P. Harris was the founder of Rotary. He was born in Racine, Wisconsin on April 19, 1868, and spent his early years in Wallingford, Vermont, prior to attending the University of Vermont, Princeton University and the University of Iowa. Following his graduation from the law school of the University of Iowa in 1891 he spent the next five years seeing the world and in coming to know his fellow man before settling down to practice law in Chicago.

He worked as a newspaper reporter, a business college teacher, a stock company actor and as a cowboy. He traveled extensively as a salesman for a marble and granite concern in the U.S.A. and Europe. These varied experiences broadened his vision and were of material assistance in the early extension of Rotary.

In 1896, Paul Harris went to Chicago to practice law. One day in 1900 he dined with a lawyer friend in Rogers Park, a residential section of Chicago. After dinner they took a walk and he was impressed by the fact that his friend stopped at several stores and shops in the neighborhood and introduced him to the proprietors, who were his friends. Paul Harris' law clients were business friends, not social friends, but this experience caused him to wonder why he couldn't make social friends out of at least some of his business friends - and he resolved to organize a club which would band together a group of representative business and professional men in friendship and fellowship.

Today's Thoughts in Honor of

Marooned Without a Compass Day- November 6

And in the worship of security we fling our lives beneath the wheels of routine - and before we know it our lives are gone. The years thunder by, The dreams of youth grow dim where they lie caked in dust on the shelves of patience. Before we know it, the tomb is sealed. Where, then, lies the answer? In choice. Which shall it be: bankruptcy of purse or bankruptcy of life?

- Sterling Hayden (1916 – 1986)

Dunce Day – November 8

"Nurture an appetite for being puzzled, for being confused, indeed for being openly stupid, and that - despite what you may think - is very difficult...We all know the cliché that a little knowledge can be a dangerous thing. It is also true that a lot of knowledge can be a dangerous thing as well...use your ignorance as well as your knowledge for creative means."

- Lee C. Bollinger (1946 –)

Two rednecks were looking at a Sears catalog and admiring the models.

One says to the other, 'Have you seen the beautiful girls in this catalog?'

The second one replies, 'Yes, they are very beautiful. And look at the price!'

The first one says, with wide eyes, 'Wow, they aren't very expensive. At this price, I'm buying one.'

The second one smiles and pats him on the back. 'Good idea! Order one and if she's as beautiful as she is in the catalog, I will get one too.'

Three weeks later, the youngest redneck asks his friend, 'Did you ever receive the girl you ordered from the Sears catalog?'

The second redneck replies, 'No, but it shouldn't be long now. I got her clothes yesterday!'

Having a Good Time in Peru

Rotarians in Peru know how to throw a party.

For the past 25 years, the Rotary Club of Monterrico-Surco has been hosting what it calls an annual "happiness caravan" for low-income seniors in the Lima area, serving up food, music, and dancing as well as tending to the seniors' medical and personal needs.

"We are going to give you one happy day for 364 ordinary days," explains July Gereda de Carlin, a past president of the club and one of the event's organizers.

The event got its name in its early years, when club members used their cars to shuttle seniors on tours of the city and gatherings at a local park.

Later, for the comfort of the seniors, the club switched to buses and moved the event to a school gym.

The most recent event, held in September, was attended by 320 seniors. A well-known musical act performed, and a national champion dancer, the grandson of a Rotarian, demonstrated the traditional Peruvian marinera. The seniors also were treated to a "crazy hour," with Interactors and Rotaractors handing out balloons and Rotarians donning festive hats. The crowd celebrated like it was a "big Carnival party," Gereda de Carlin says.

"They feel they are again in their young times, when they went to the Carnival parties," she says. "Everyone wants to dance."

The lunch included rice with chicken, tuna sandwiches, desserts, and Inca Kola, a Peruvian soft drink, all prepared or donated by Rotarians and their relatives and friends. Dorit Gross, the wife of Past RI Director Gustavo Gross, obtained 75 donated cakes, a task she's performed since the first happiness caravan.

In addition to the food and festivities, the seniors were given makeovers including haircuts and manicures, and Rotarian doctors and their colleagues provided medical care. Participants were sent home with gifts like scarves and personal care items.

Gereda de Carlin, District 4450 governor nominee, says she plans to encourage all the clubs in her district to do a similar project when she is governor.

"It's a lot of work, but people are very grateful," she says. "You feel your heart is big."
