McKinney, TX

Today's Program

Kim Loyd

Owner
MOM & POPCorn Co.

Rotary Club of McKinney Sunrise, District 5810
Club Number 28762, Chartered May 22, 1992
P.O. Box 2244, McKinney, Texas, 75070

MOM & POPCorn Company

The MOM and POPcorn Company remembers the good old days. We have combined the fun and nostalgia of an old fashioned candy store with the extreme yumminess of gourmet popcorn. Buy it by the bag or choose from our selection of Gift Tins or Gift Baskets. We are committed to providing the very best gourmet popcorn experience available anywhere. We have to warn you though, our popcorn is very addictive, and will leave a permanent smile on your face.

Our first retail store in Historic McKinney Texas is set in a beautiful 1890's era building. Rich hardwood floors, original tin ceilings, candy barrels, penny candy jars, and vintage seed bin counters add to the charm. The home made caramel popcorn and fudge being made in our state of the art gourmet kitchen can be smelled throughout the downtown square. Customers are encouraged to try samples of popcorn while they shop. If you are ever in the McKinney Texas area, please stop by our store and experience our candy memories and wonderful popcorn.

Our Last Flag Holiday of the Year

If you can help with receiving flags from our flag partners this evening, please be at the storage shed between 5:00 & 7:00 this evening. Attendance will count as a make up.

Updating your profile

All club members are responsible for keeping their profiles up to date on the District 5810 website. The district, Rotary International, and Secretary Jim can get changes in e-mail, mailing address and other data if members go to <http://www.rotary5810.org/> and click on Login and Edit My Profile. If a member has not built a profile previously, ClubRunner will walk the person through the process in the "New User? Click Here" section on the left panel, or by using the Help tab. There is no reason for us to have outdated contact info or bad data on a member. As the District Trainer, Lyle relies on ClubRunner data for contacts and business for all clubs. If each member would keep good data on the system, Jim, the District officers, and Rotary International would appreciate it a bunch. Thanks

Collin Blood Care Drive at Collin College (McKinney)

We could still use some volunteers for the Carter Blood Care drive at Collin College (McKinney campus) today. Jennifer Smith (Plano Sunrise) brought the sign-up sheet to our club a couple of weeks ago and there were still open times for volunteers when she picked it up. In the recent past, we have had help from Juli, Ron and Bill's parents (there may have been others on shifts that I did not work). I believe that Jeff signed up this time. Also, we need to encourage donors; members, spouses, family, co-workers, etc.. Recall that our club gets credits for blood to be used in surgery for each volunteer and each donor. Anybody in the club can use the blood credit.

Today's Thoughts in Honor of

World Kindness Day- November 13

I expect to pass through this world but once; any good thing therefore that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any fellow creature, let me do it now; let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again.

- Ettiene De Grellet (1773 – 1855)

National Philanthropy Day – November 15

"Realize that true happiness lies within you. Waste no time and effort searching for peace and contentment and joy in the world outside. Remember that there is no happiness in having or in getting, but only in giving. Reach out. Share. Smile. Hug. Happiness is a perfume you cannot pour on others without getting a few drops on yourself."

- Og Mandino (1923 – 1996)

A drunk was proudly showing off his new apartment to a couple of his friends late one night. He led the way to his bedroom where there was a big brass gong and a mallet.

"What's with that big brass gong?" one of the guests asked.

"It's not a gong. It's a talking clock," the drunk replied.

"A talking clock? Seriously?" asked his astonished friend.

"Yup," replied the drunk.

"How's it work?" the friend asked, squinting at it.

"Watch," the drunk replied. He picked up the mallet, gave the gong an ear-shattering pound, and stepped back. The three stood looking at one another for a moment.

Suddenly, someone on the other side of the wall screamed, "You idiot! It's one-fifteen in the morning!"

Having a Good Time in Peru

As the global economic crisis deepens, District Governor August Hioco believes there is no better time for clubs to rediscover one of the pillars of Rotary: the Avenue of Vocational Service.

"Rotary started on the idea of helping one another through fellowship and Service Above Self," says Hioco, governor of District 5230 (California, USA). "More than any time in history, the new generation, along with the old Rotarian guard, must get back to protecting the value of vocation through business-to-business networking."

Hioco made vocational service the cornerstone of his 2008-09 year as governor and encourages all clubs to give Rotarians the opportunity to network and do business with one another.

"Because vocational service is an integral part of club projects and activities, I consider this topic fundamentally important to Rotary's future," says Hioco.

This belief led to his collaboration with Mary Margaret Fleming, a past governor of District 5230, on Back to the Basics: Rotary 1905, a tool kit that explores carrying out the Avenue of Vocational Service.

"As Rotary evolves and diversifies, we need to be more creative in our approach and methodology to keep Rotarians interested," says Fleming, Vocational Service chair of District 5230 and a past general coordinator of RI's Public Image Resource Group. "But [we must] also attract new members while at the same time responsibly honoring our vocations.

"The benefits of doing business with one another are enormous," she says. "Gaining useful and reliable professional contacts, obtaining references, and offering opportunities for others can only help during this economic slowdown."

As Hioco tours the district to promote the kit, he's seen the support that clubs give to members most seriously affected by the economy. Clubs have offered the use of office space and assistance in résumé writing and job hunting. In some cases, Rotarians have paid dues for fellow members to enable them to stay in the organization, says Hioco.

Vocational service is one of the four Avenues of Service which form the foundation of club activity. Hioco became interested in vocational service after hearing Past RI President Cliff Dochterman speak on the issue at a district assembly a few years ago. Dochterman described the importance of vocational service in Rotary history and its continuing role in a well-balanced Rotary program.

"I was motivated by what he said and wanted to devote my year as governor to getting clubs back to vocational service," Hioco says. "I see clubs starting to appreciate the value of vocation. My focus will go far beyond just this year."

For information on ordering Back to the Basics: Rotary 1905, which includes a DVD of Dochterman's speech, contact Mary Margaret Fleming.
