Dr. Blair Ritchey – International Student Foundation

Dr. Blair Ritchey serves as the Executive Director of the International Student Foundation (ISF), a Dallas-based foundation serving orphans and aged-out foster care youth with scholarships, mentoring and leadership development. In addition to his work with ISF, Blair is the North Texas Area Developer for Planet Smoothie/Tasti D-Lite, a growing franchise group now part of Kahala Brands.

Prior to his business ventures into franchising, Blair enjoyed a distinguished 36-year career in church work, focusing on church multiplication and leadership development. His work in charitable fund raising includes financing church planting projects, church campus development, serving on the Board of Trustees of Oklahoma Wesleyan University, and raising funds for 501(c)(3) organizations such as ISF. He is a member of the Plano Rotary Club, where he serves as Next Generations Committee Chair.

Blair and his wife Helen reside in Allen, TX. He is the proud father of two children and really loves being “Pap” to his two grandsons.

Blair’s presentation today is entitled “The Power of Philanthropy to a Father less Generation.”

THE POWER OF PHILANTHROPY TO A FATHERLESS GENERATION

Today’s presentation examines the impact of fatherlessness in today’s society, with a focus on the challenges facing the 25,000 young people who age out of foster care each year in America. There is great power in the work of philanthropic individuals and organizations like the Rotary Club to influence these young people and help them achieve their dreams.

Shelter Box Prepares for Mosul Refugees

ShelterBox and its partner, ACTED, a French nongovernmental aid agency, have been preparing for weeks to get aid supplies ready so they can respond quickly as the battle unfolds in Mosul.

Today marked the start of the battle to take control of Mosul back from the Islamic State group, also known as ISIS. The city is the group's last major stronghold in Iraq. But humanitarian aid agencies have known about the military offensive, giving them an unusual opportunity to prepare for the crisis.

"It is rare for the world to get early warning of a vast human catastrophe," says Chris Warham, chief executive of ShelterBox. "The United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees issued a paper in July saying this would likely be the biggest humanitarian crisis of the year — and we better get prepared."

ShelterBox, Rotary's project partner for disaster relief, and ACTED, a French nongovernmental aid agency, have teams in the city of Irbil in Iraqi Kurdistan, 53 miles (85 km) east of Mosul. They have been working since July to get aid supplies ready so they can respond quickly as the battle unfolds.

"By tomorrow, 650 of the 3,000 tents that have been deployed to Irbil will arrive," says Warham. He estimates that, without the early notice, it would have taken ShelterBox at least two and a half weeks to gather these supplies.

Tens of thousands of people have already been displaced from Mosul and surrounding areas since March. The current round of fighting could last weeks or even months and is certain to raise that number, although it's unknown just how many people remain in Mosul and in which direction they might flee.

"Our aim is to get aid to displaced families as quickly as possible," says Rachel Harvey, operations coordinator at ShelterBox, who is in Irbil. "Giving people shelter and essential items such as a solar lamp, blankets, and a water carrier will allow them a degree of dignity and security to rest and recover."

Existing camps are already near or over capacity, so other possible sites are being readied. But Warham predicts that demand will almost certainly outpace supply, which could force many families to seek shelter outside managed camps in an inhospitable landscape during a season given to storms and below-freezing overnight temperatures.

ACTED and ShelterBox have partnered many times around the world. Most recently they worked together to help people in Haiti, where the deadly force of Hurricane Matthew caused a surge in cholera cases and left thousands homeless.

The Islamic State has controlled Mosul, the oil-rich capital of Nineveh province, since June 2014. Before the invasion, the city was Iraq's second-largest and one of its most diverse.

Joe sets up his friend Mike on a blind date with a young lady-friend of his. But Mike is a little worried about going out with someone he's never seen before. "What do I do if she's really unattractive?" says Mike. "I'll be stuck with her all evening."

"Don't worry," Joe says, "just go up to her door and meet her first. If you like what you see, then everything goes as planned. If you don't just shout 'Aaaaaauuggghhh!' and fake an asthma attack."

So that night, Mike knocks at the girl's door and when she comes out he is awe-struck at how attractive and sexy she is. He's about to speak when the girl suddenly shouts:

"Aaaaaauuggghhh!"
